

There are Four British Values I Really Do Matter

Individual Liberty

Rule of Law

Democracy

Mutual Respect and Tolerance

Did you know the word democracy originated in Ancient Greece from demos meaning common people and kratos meaning strength?

Individual Liberty

- I make the right choices
- I take responsibility for my actions
- I understand the consequences of my actions
- I manage risks
- I know how to exercise my rights and freedoms in an appropriate way

Examples

- Equality and Human Rights Personal Development
- Respect and Dignity
- Rights, choice, consent and individuality
- Values and principles

Rule of Law

- I value and understand the importance of rules and laws
- I follow school rules and understand why there is a consequence if I do not
- I understand that everybody is responsible for rules and laws
- I know rules are there to protect me

Example

- Legislation
- Agree ways of working, policies and procedures
- How the laws protect you and others
- Codes of conduct

Democracy

- I know I have a voice and my opinions will be heard
- I can listen carefully to others
- I know how to discuss an issue in a calm way and can show respect for others even if I disagree
- My vote counts

Examples

- Leadership and accountability
- Joint decision making
- Team meetings
- The right to protest and petition
- Receiving and giving feedback

Mutual Respect and Tolerance

- I know my behaviour, actions and words can affect others
- I understand and respect that not everyone is the same as me and everyone needs to be treated as an individual
- I know that life is not the same for everyone
- I understand that people's faiths and beliefs are different, and I respect that

Example

- Embracing diversity
- The importance of religion, traditions, cultural heritage and preferences
- Stereotyping, labelling and prejudice
- Tackling discrimination
