What has happened at Sharow This week

☀ Welcoming Our Student Teachers ☀

We are delighted to be supporting two student teachers this term, offering them the opportunity to learn within our vibrant and highly skilled school community. Our staff bring a wealth of expertise, and we are proud to share our strong practice, professional knowledge, and commitment to excellence as we help develop the next generation of educators.

A very warm welcome to Miss Ball, who joins our year 1 and 2 class, and Miss Newsam, who joins our early years.

What to look forward to Join The Children Child at Forest School!

We'd love for you to share the magic of Forest School with your child!

When: Tuesdays, 1:30–3:15 pm

Why: Make memories, see their confidence grow, and enjoy the outdoors together.

Come for one session or more—no experience needed, just enthusiasm!

👉 Sign up via the school office today. Spaces are limited!

Supporting Parents and Carers: NYES Training Opportunities – 2026

We are pleased to share information about a range of NYES Training sessions available to parents and carers in 2026, designed to support understanding of neurodiversity and to help families better support their children and young people.

NYES are offering the following training opportunities:

- Unlocking Autism for parents and carers of young people | NYES Training
- Unlocking ADHD for parents and carers | NYES Training
- Unlocking Autism for Parents & Carers | NYES Training

These sessions aim to build confidence, knowledge, and practical strategies for supporting children and young people with autism or ADHD. They provide valuable insights into how children experience the world, alongside guidance on communication, behaviour, and emotional regulation.

Training is delivered by experienced professionals and is suitable for parents and carers at any stage of their journey. Whether you are seeking a greater understanding or practical next steps, these sessions offer a supportive and informative environment.

Have Your Say – Support for Parents and Carers

At Sharow School, we're committed to making learning meaningful for every child—and supporting you as parents and carers is a big part of that. In the past, we've offered sessions at 5pm, but attendance has been low. We'd love to hear what would work best for you! Please take a moment to complete our short form and tell us which topics (phonics, reading, maths) and formats would be most helpful. Your feedback will shape how we support you going forward.

Role play adventure for kids

A little city just for little people

Little City is a fully mobile role play centre incorporating shops and businesses built especially for kids aged up to 6. It can be set up with minimal fuss and in almost any location.

Does your toddler or pre-schooler just love to role play? Do they pretend play being a fire fighter, police officer or hairdresser?

If so, come and try out our purpose-designed little city where they can be a shopkeeper, run their own café and be a superhero all in one hour!

Little City gives your children the opportunity to explore and play being a 'grown up' - an experience they'll want to try again and again.

Looking for a unique birthday idea?
Book us for your next party!

All our events are PAYG so no termly fees: come and join us for a hot tea or coffee whilst your child plays and learns.
